Description

An antique 20th century Jacobean-style oak bureau of fine quality and excellent craftsmanship. Very well made and highly desirable, it features a beautifully fitted interior in the upper section, ideal for stationery or small storage, with two drawers below, each retaining their original dropper handles and complete with a working key. The bureau stands on elegant barley twist legs with a matching barley twist stretcher, showcasing its classic Jacobean design. Crafted from oak, it displays gorgeous grain and rich colour throughout, with stunning geometric decoration adding to its character and visual appeal. Presented in good condition, this bureau is a highly desirable piece and a perfect addition to any home.
