Description

A pair of stools in Oak with rush seats dating from around 1900. One is in almost perfect condition the other does have some rubbing on the rush but minor. They are both solid and the wood is in tidy condition. They have the twin turned support stretchers and the pad feet. We have a single one listed for £130 (please see our other items for sale) but the pair can be a highly competitive £200 for both. Pairs normally command a premium of course. The last picture shows the top of the stool with some rubbing, as can be seen it is not significant
