Description

Antique 20th century fine quality glazed oak corner cabinet. The upper section features a glazed front with two internal shelves, providing ample display space for ornaments or books, while the base has a blind door cupboard with a single shelf inside, ideal for storing household essentials neatly and out of sight. The piece retains all its original handles and fittings and comes with a key, adding to its authenticity and charm. Stood on sturdy bracket feet, it is very well made and of fine quality, with beautiful craftsmanship visible in every detail. The oak exhibits a gorgeous grain and rich colour throughout, highlighting the natural beauty of the wood. For convenience, the cabinet comes apart into two sections, making transport and placement easier. This is a very desirable example in great condition, combining functionality with elegance, and is a perfect addition to any home seeking a classic and timeless piece of furniture.
