Description

An antique 18th century mahogany chest of drawers of excellent quality and solid craftsmanship. The chest features five drawers to the front, arranged as two small over three large, all retaining their original knob handles, combining practicality with classic design. It stands on elegant turned legs, giving the piece a balanced and refined appearance, while the mahogany displays gorgeous grain and rich, warm colour throughout, highlighting the superior quality of the timber and craftsmanship. A desirable and versatile piece in a lovely size, very well made and sturdy, presented in excellent condition, this chest of drawers is a timeless addition and a perfect enhancement to any home.
