Description

Antique 20th century good quality small oak cabinet, very well made and of solid construction, showcasing excellent craftsmanship and attention to detail throughout. Having a drop-down door to the front with its original metal handle and hinges, the door is beautifully carved and adds real character and visual interest to the piece. The cabinet is stood on square legs, giving it a stable stance and a nicely balanced, attractive shape. Finished in a gorgeous oak colour with rich grain and natural warmth visible all throughout. A very desirable example in great condition, ideal for storage and a perfect addition to any home, fitting comfortably into a variety of interior settings.
