Description

Antique 20th century good quality open bookcase in oak, of a very desirable small size and ideal for a variety of spaces. The bookcase features four fixed shelves to the front, offering excellent storage and display, and is finished with a raised gallery to the top which adds both character and practicality. Very well made and solidly constructed, this is a fine example of quality craftsmanship. The oak displays a gorgeous grain and warm colour throughout, giving the piece a timeless appeal. In good condition and beautifully proportioned, this stunning bookcase would make a perfect addition to any home.
