Description

Antique 20th century Jacobean style oak dining table, stood on a refractory-style base with turned carved supports. Exquisitely crafted all throughout, very well made and of fine quality, showcasing gorgeous grain and colour. There is a set of six matching dining chairs, available in a separate listing, which can be purchased together unless they've been sold. Both the table and chairs feature solid construction, stunning detailing, and superb craftsmanship. A highly desirable and elegant table, perfect addition to any home, in great condition, with exceptional grain and colour throughout.
