Description

Mid-Century elegance! This is a magnificent thing! A superb, bold, early mid-century oak office desk with seven drawers of various depths all fitted with original looped brass or bronze handles. This extremely desirable desk will literally 'make' a room with its brutal, bang on-trend industrial look! The magnificent top has an original brown tooled leather writing surface that has a lovely worn in look. The desk is of great proportions & is in superb remarkable condition as you can see in the photographs & carries the makers label for the well regarded firm Baldock of Liverpool. This is a lovely piece of furniture which is both stylish and practical, it will make a great addition to your home office. You will never need to buy another desk again!
