Description

Antique 20th century fine quality display cabinet in oak. The upper section features a glazed front with two internal shelves, ideal for displaying ornaments or collectibles, while the lower section has three drawers, all retaining their original brass handles. Stood on decorative feet, this piece is a unique and highly desirable small size example. Crafted to the finest quality, it boasts solid construction throughout. The cabinet comes apart into two sections for ease of transport and is in great condition. A truly stunning piece, it displays gorgeous grain and colour all throughout. The cabinet must be seen in person to be fully appreciated. Very desirable, practical, and perfect addition to any home.
