Description

An antique 19th century oak dresser base of fine quality and exceptional craftsmanship. Very well made and solidly constructed, this elegant piece stands on gracefully shaped cabriole legs, giving it a refined and balanced appearance while showcasing traditional design elements. The oak displays gorgeous grain and rich, warm colour throughout, highlighting the superior quality of the timber. The drawer fronts are beautifully cross-banded, adding extra decorative detail and visual interest, while all original brass handles and fittings remain intact, enhancing both its authenticity and period charm. A highly desirable and stunning example in a practical and generous size, presented in good condition, this dresser base is a timeless and versatile piece. Perfect for both functional use and as a decorative feature, it would make an exceptional addition to any home, combining elegance, durability, and historical character.
