Description

An antique 20th century Jacobean style wardrobe in oak, of good quality and solid craftsmanship. Well made and attractively proportioned, the wardrobe is beautifully decorated throughout with classic Jacobean-style beading, giving it strong character and period charm. The wardrobe features a central door opening to reveal a mirror, hanging rail, and a shelf to the top, providing practical storage. It stands on turned legs, enhancing its traditional appearance. A very desirable example with a pleasing shape, presented in good condition, this wardrobe is a stylish and functional piece and a perfect addition to any home.
