Description

This fine example of Bohemian glass design dates to circa 1900. The main body of this stunning vase is of a squat, bulbous form, which flows into a narrow, tapered neck that terminates in a wavy rim with a green glass edge. The vase has a superb iridescent finish that shimmers in purple, green, gold and red tones. The front of the vase has an applied stem of two fruiting red cherries and three green leaves which again have the stunning iridescent finish. A most pleasing piece and in excellent original condition. Height 10.5cm x width 15cm x depth 13.5cm
Czechoslovakian, circa 1900
