Description

Antique 19th century unique marble top buffet, French, crafted from walnut, showcasing a very distinctive and rare design. The piece features a clever fold-up section that reveals a marble interior, adding both functionality and charm. It has two drawers to the front, each with its original dropper handles, reflecting the fine quality and attention to detail. The buffet stands on turned legs with a shelf to the centre and base, finished on bun feet, providing stability and elegance. The gorgeous walnut grain and warm colour run beautifully throughout, highlighting the craftsmanship and period character. Very well made and in good condition, this highly desirable and unique piece would make a perfect addition to any home, offering both style and practicality.
