Description

Antique 20th century low chest of drawers, very well made and of fine quality, showcasing excellent craftsmanship and a timeless, elegant design. The chest is stood on turned legs with a supporting stretcher running across the centre, providing both strength and visual balance. It features two drawers to the front, each retaining its original knob handles, adding to the piece's authentic period character. The wood displays a gorgeous grain and rich colour throughout, enhancing its overall appeal. In good condition and of a desirable low height, this versatile piece is ideal for use in a variety of settings and makes a perfect addition to any home.
