Description

Vintage Pearl Necklace with Diamond & Emerald Clasp – Circa 1950s A truly elegant three-strand pearl necklace dating to the 1950s, beautifully finished with a diamond and emerald clasp. The clasp is set centrally with a vivid green emerald, measuring approximately 3mm, surrounded by ten sparkling diamonds, all mounted in attractive 9ct gold with fine millegrain detailing. The cultured pearls are individually hand knotted and display a soft creamy ivory tone with a deep, lustrous glow. Graduating gently in size, the strands sit gracefully at the neckline and create a timeless, flattering silhouette when worn. The necklace is fitted with a push box clasp and additional safety catch for secure wear. A classic mid-century pearl necklace, refined and feminine, suitable for both formal occasions and elegant everyday wear.
