Description

An antique 18th century mahogany kneehole desk of good quality and exceptional craftsmanship. Very well made and solidly constructed, the desk features three drawers to the front, arranged with one large drawer at the top and two smaller drawers below, all retaining their original brass handles. The desk stands on sturdy square legs and displays gorgeous grain and rich colour throughout, highlighting the quality of the mahogany. A very desirable example in a nice, compact size, presented in good condition for its age, this kneehole desk is both practical and elegant, making a perfect addition to any home.
