Description

A very fine Chamberlain Worcester porcelain Armorial Crested Jug c.1795 - 1800. Of spiral fluted form, decorated with a yellow ground and gilding, the front decorated with a monogram 'JJ' in gold below a crest, probably that of Jenkins, Co. Salop. Marked in gold script 'Chamberlains Worcester' to the base. Note: A similarly shaped jug painted with a view of Buildwas Abbey is illustrated in Geoffrey A. Godden, Chamberlain-Worcester Porcelain, 1788-1852, p. 91, fig. 98. Condition: Good with just a professionally restored crack to the side of the jug and base of the handle.
