Description

A finely painted river landscape by William Mellor depicting cattle wading through a shallow stretch of water within a verdant countryside setting. The scene is enriched by gently rolling hills, mature trees and soft atmospheric light, all handled with Mellor's characteristic sensitivity and attention to natural detail. The calm reflections and balanced composition create a particularly pleasing and decorative work. Oil on canvas, presented in an ornate gilt frame. The painting is in good condition and represents a strong example of Mellor's Yorkshire landscape subjects.
