Description

An antique 20th century small oak cabinet of good quality and fine craftsmanship. The cabinet features a single shelf to the top and a small double-door cupboard at the base, providing practical storage in a compact design. The front is beautifully carved, and the piece retains all of its original knob handles and fittings, adding to its authenticity and charm. Crafted from oak, it displays gorgeous grain and rich colour throughout. Very well made and solidly constructed, this desirable small-sized cabinet is presented in good condition and would make a perfect addition to any home.
