Description

An antique 20th century oak sideboard of fine quality and excellent craftsmanship. Very well made and solidly constructed, the sideboard features three drawers to the upper section and three doors to the base, each enclosing a single internal shelf, providing generous and practical storage. The oak displays gorgeous grain, rich colour, and beautiful figuring throughout, highlighting the quality of the timber. Standing on sturdy square legs, the piece retains all of its original brass handles and fittings, adding to its authenticity and charm. Presented in good condition, this very desirable sideboard is a timeless and attractive piece of furniture.
