Description

An antique 20th century oak dresser of good quality and excellent craftsmanship. Well made and solid in construction, the upper section features three open display shelves, ideal for plates or decorative items, while the lower section comprises two drawers above a double-door cupboard, providing useful storage space. The dresser stands on turned legs, adding to its traditional character, and showcases beautiful oak grain and warm colour throughout. All original brass handles remain intact, enhancing its authenticity. The piece comes apart into two sections for ease of transport and is presented in good condition. A desirable and practical dresser, perfect as a charming addition to any home.
