Description

An antique 20th century oak sideboard of good quality and solid craftsmanship. Very well made and sturdy in construction, the sideboard features three drawers to the upper section and a double-door cupboard to the base, all fitted with their original brass dropper handles. Beautifully decorated and standing on turned legs with a supporting stretcher, the piece displays gorgeous grain and rich colour throughout, highlighting the quality of the oak. A desirable and practical example, this sideboard is a timeless piece of furniture and a perfect addition to any home.
