Description

Antique 20th century walnut bookcase, featuring a glazed upper section with three adjustable shelves, ideal for displaying books or collectibles. Below are two central drawers with their original brass handles, and a double blind door cupboard to the base, containing a singular fixed shelf for additional storage. Nicely carved detailing adorns the cupboard doors, adding subtle elegance. The piece stands on a plinth base, showcasing gorgeous walnut grain and colour throughout. Comes apart into two sections for ease of transport. Very well made and of good quality, in good condition. A desirable example, complete with key, making it a perfect addition to any home.
