Description

Type of artwork: Original Gouache Painting Surface: Paper / Card Artist and signature: Signed M Gianni Maria Gianni (1873–1956) was an Italian artist active in the late 19th and early 20th centuries, best known for her finely executed works on paper, particularly gouache and watercolour. Her work frequently depicts Mediterranean coastal scenes, including views of Naples, the Bay of Naples, Mount Vesuvius, and the Amalfi Coast, rendered with a light, decorative touch and strong sense of atmosphere. Gianni's paintings were produced during a period when southern Italy was a popular destination for travellers and collectors, and her work reflects the enduring appeal of these sunlit landscapes. While not an academic or avant-garde figure, she developed a recognisable and highly decorative style that continues to attract collectors seeking traditional European coastal imagery. Her work has appeared at auction on multiple occasions. The current auction record for Maria Gianni is $2,528 USD, achieved for Fort St Angelo from Valletta, Malta, sold at Bonhams Knightsbridge in 2017. Most examples achieve more modest prices, with values dependent on subject, size, and medium, th...
