Description

This is a stylish antique Victorian burr walnut table top cigar humidor or collectors table-top cabinet, Circa 1870 in date. The cabinet features two doors fitted with the original Bramah lock and key. It opens to reveal a pair of cedar-lined drawers each with a central adjustable divider, perfect for cigars, and they are each fitted with inset flush brass "campaign" handles. The cabinet is raised on a moulded platform base. It would make a beautiful gift to any connoisseur of fine cigars or as a collector's cabinet. Condition: In really excellent original condition having only been carefully cleaned and waxed in our workshops, please see photos for confirmation.
