Description

Elegant later painted console table inspired by Georgian and Regency design, featuring a carved central crest, slender legs and versatile proportions. At a Glance - Appeal, Desirability & Collectibility. Elegant console / side table of refined classical form. Slender tapering legs with turned feet. Central carved decorative crest to the frieze. Later painted soft blue-green finish with gentle ageing. Compact, versatile proportions – ideal for hallways, landings or living spaces. Practical yet highly decorative. Likely late 19th / early 20th century, in the Georgian-Regency revival taste. Dimensions: H: 72cm (28.3") | W: 92cm (36.2") | D: 46cm (18.1"). Delivery is not included – please use the Request Delivery Quote feature before completing your order. Elegant Classical Form – History, Detail & Use. This highly stylish console table is notable for its refined proportions, elegant stance and crisp neoclassical detailing. Although later painted, the underlying form clearly draws inspiration from Georgian and Regency design, where balance, symmetry and restrained ornament were paramount. The table features a shaped top above a shallow frieze, centred with a carved decorative crest. ...
