Description

Moderately Sized Victorian Pine Scrub Top Table. A smaller Victorian Pine Scrub Top daily usable table with great style. This is a charming and robust antique Victorian Scrub Top table, dating to approximately C1870 and made from Pine. This original Victorian pine table is a beautiful example of authentic country furniture, possessing a level of character and "time-worn" patina that only comes with age. Featuring a highly desirable three-plank scrub top, the table was stripped many years ago, allowing the timber to mellow naturally into a soft, faded pine tone while avoiding the harsh orange hues often found in later restorations. At 1055mm by 625mm, its smaller, more intimate form makes it an incredibly versatile piece, perfect as a breakfast table for two, a stylish hall console, or a characterful writing desk. While the table displays historic woodworm marks on the legs, side rails, and top, these have aged beautifully over the decades, adding a charming, textured patina that serves as a testament to its long history. For complete peace of mind, we have treated the piece again in our workshop to ensure it remains inactive. Structurally, the table has been fully rest...
