Description

A refined 19th-century antique mahogany envelope games table, beautifully proportioned and displaying elegant craftsmanship throughout. The table features a folding envelope top, opening to reveal a green baize playing surface, making it ideal for use as a card or games table while remaining discreet and elegant when closed. The top folds neatly back into place, retaining a clean and sophisticated appearance suitable for both traditional and modern interiors. Below, the table is fitted with a single frieze drawer, finely decorated and retaining its original brass handles, providing useful storage for cards or games pieces. The whole is raised on slender cabriole legs, each enriched with carved detailing, contributing to the table's light, graceful stance. Elegant, practical, and timeless, this piece works equally well as a games table, occasional table, or decorative accent within refined period interiors. Presented in good antique condition, with light age-related wear consistent with age and use. The structure is solid throughout, the folding mechanism operates smoothly, and the surface retains a pleasing, well-aged patina. DIMENSIONS Height: 76 cm Width: 60 cm ...
