Description

A large antique blanket box dating from the early 20th century. It is made of pine which has retained its original stained finish giving it a lovely warm and rich colour. It has metal carrying handles and the interior has been lined in a lovely floral fabric at some point. A good size for a coffee table, end of the bed storage or toy trunk. It is in good condition for its age and is strong and sturdy. It is generally clean and tidy inside with a few minor marks and stains. There are signs of use and age, some general knocks and marks and small losses and wear to the finish here and there but nothing untoward or detrimental. The box has been cleaned and gently polished and is ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask.
