Description

An Exceptional Antique Edwardian Drinks Tray with gallery border fashioned in silver plate and finely pierced with a series of vertical cut-outs that give the piece a lightness of appearance. The gallery is finished with well-formed handles to either side. The tray surface is veneered in richly figured mahogany, polished to a warm sheen. The craftsmanship is highlighted by a central oval inlay in the form of a radiating fan motif, set in lighter and darker woods to create a striking contrast – circa 1905. Measurements: Height: 2" (approx. 5cm) Width: 15 3/4" (approx. 40cm) Depth: 17" (approx. 43cm) Total weight: 1750g In good condition – The Mahogany has a warm, well-figured grain with minor age-related surface marks. Inlay crisp and intact. Silver plating retains a good shine, with light rubbing consistent with age and careful use. The structure is solid and functional, suitable for use or display.
