Description

Clockwise is delighted to present for your consideration a fine example of an early Victorian eight day dial fusee wall clock. This unusual mahogany example has an 8 inch dial with 'J. Metcalfe, London' notated to the dial and the clock surround is of a carved foliage design over a fixed bracket with undertier. Original spade hands compliment the appearance as does the original cast brass bezel. The recently overhauled and cleaned eight day duration fusee timepiece movement has an anchor recoil escapement and as such benefits from my three year guarantee. The restored case is a standard two-piece design with decorative surround attaching to the back box via four matching wooden pegs. There is an access door to each side of the clock. Clockwise specialises in longcase and bracket clocks and with clients from the world of business, film, sport, royalty and aristocracy - yet more than happy with traditional clients - Clockwise has an unrivalled reputation for excellence and superb service. There are a few similar clocks on the market, similarly priced yet unrestored, so this early piece represents great value for money and also peace of mind, coming as it does with my ...
