Description

Frederick William Jackson (1859-1918) was born at Oldham in 1859. He was the son of an art dealer and photographer and was a member of the Arts Club in 1879, the Limners Club in 1880 and the Manchester Academy of Fine Arts in 1881. He was a founder member of the Staithes group and Art Club and exhibited widely throughout the country. His work is now in important private and public collections and is much sought after. "The Artist's House, Hinderwell" is an oil on canvas measuring 22"x 33". It is in a good period gilt frame giving an overall size of 33"x 43". The painting is unsigned. On the back is the original letter reading "This painting was painted by my father Frederick William Jackson being a scene opposite his house at Hinderwell, Yorkshire." The letter is signed by his daughter. An interesting and important Staithes Group work by one of the Group's finest members.
