Description

9ct Gold Pearl Drop Earrings – Birmingham 1968 A beautifully elegant pair of pearl drop earrings, finely hand-crafted in solid 9ct gold and hallmarked in Birmingham in 1968. Designed in the classic late-1960s style, each earring features a softly articulated drop formed by two lustrous cultured pearls, creating graceful movement and a wonderfully feminine line. The upper pearl measures 5mm and supports a larger 7.5mm pearl suspended below, both displaying a rich creamy ivory tone and a deep, glowing lustre. Their refined proportions make them perfectly suited for both formal and occasion wear, offering timeless beauty with every movement. These earrings are in excellent original condition and are presented in the box illustrated – a charming and thoughtful gift choice.
