For your consideration is this very enchanting porcelain half doll pin cushion, dating to the 1930s and sourced in France. Depicts a flapper girl stood dressed in the fashion of the day. The attention to detail is just wonderful, so skillfully painted, from her slightly blushed cheeks to her charcoal eyeliner, everything about this piece screams quality and at every angle she looks amazing. This is one of our personal favourite pieces, she won't disappoint and comes in great condition free from any damage or restoration. BIO Fasold & Stauch was a company in Bock-Wallendorf, Thuringia, Germany. It was in business from 1903 to 1972. The company made figurines, half dolls, dolls heads, clock cases, and several figurines of ballet dancers. Fasold and Stuach pieces are highly collectable today and highly prized by collectors for some of the rarer pieces.
