Description

This is one of our personal favourite atomizers of this years finds. It's so very stylish and unusual. Totally original 1930s Art Deco perfume atomiser on a black glass plinth. Originates from France. These perfume bottles are very hard to source. A perfect addition to any collection or to an admirer of the Art Deco period. Would look great displayed on an Art Deco dressing table; Altogether, a very desirable Art Deco 1930s period glass perfume bottle. In good vintage condition. There are one or two fleabite size nics to the base, mentioned for accuracy as they genuinely aren't noticeable unless you search for them. Priced accordingly. The chrome plating is still shiny but does have some very minor signs of age. There are some scratches to the black enamel on one side, nothing to distract and expected wear for a bottle this age. No oxidisation to the enamelling, everything is bright and crisp. FREE UK MAINLAND DELIVERY
