Description

A matching Victorian solid silver three piece jam serving set with engraved decoration weighing 3.2 troy oz, hallmarked Sheffield 1896. Both spoons with pointed frilled edge wells and deep cut floral engraving; the terminus of the handles with Albany pattern decoration. Matching jam knife with pointed tip to the end, plus engraving and handle, which complement the spoons. Each bears the makers mark for Sheffield silversmiths John Round & Sons along with clear hallmarks to all sections. Superbly made, the silverware is in immaculate unused condition and is sat in the original presentation case, which has wear typical of it's age. Keep up to date via Instagram - sturmansantiques. Spoons measure 6.25" long x 2" wide at the well and the jam knife measures 7" long x 1.25" wide at the blade. Postage and packing cost (tracked and insured) for this item is £8.00 for mainland UK.
