Description

18th Century Antique Westmorland Side Table with Thick Burr Walnut Top A fabulous English 18th century antique country side table that is originally from the Westmorland area. Overall a fantastic original colour, the thick slab table top is a single piece of wonderful burred walnut on a gun barrel turned table base with connecting turned stretchers that have lovely wear. The antique walnut slab table top is even early, 17th century, with the Georgian 18th century table base being made for the wonderful table top. A beautiful piece.
