Description

Circa 1905 American sterling silver set of 12 arched form menu, name or place card holders made by the Schofield Company of Baltimore, Maryland. American sterling silver is .925 fine, exactly the same as English silver content. It is very unusual to get a full set of 12 menu or card holders, which will accommodate a large dinner party. These arch form holders have a combination of smooth and matt engraved detail to the arched shape. Size-1 3/8 inches long by just over .75 inches high. Weight-80 grams. A lovely and unusual set in very good condition, which will look elegant and stylish on the dining table. A set as large as this is very difficult to find. I have never seen another.
