Description

A refined late 19th-century French cabinet on stand, beautifully crafted in richly figured kingwood and extensively inlaid with elegant marquetry throughout. The upper glazed cabinet features shaped panels and a shelved interior, ideal for displaying porcelain, objets d'art, or fine glass. The cabinet rests on a finely proportioned stand with cabriole legs, the frieze and surface decorated with intricate marquetry panels. The whole is further enhanced with finely cast gilt bronze mounts and mouldings, adding depth and definition to the form. An elegant and decorative piece that balances display and craftsmanship, suitable for both traditional and refined contemporary interiors. height 162cm x width 92cm x depth 49cm
