Description

Set of Six Late Victorian Oak Dining Chairs Item Code: S26-123A A good set of six late Victorian oak dining chairs of traditional form, each with a shaped crest rail above a padded and studded leather back, raised on upright supports. The chairs stand on turned front legs terminating in ceramic castors, with square rear legs, and retain their original studded leather seats. The upholstery would benefit from reupholstery to suit modern tastes, though the seats remain in good, usable condition as they stand. A solid and decorative set, well suited to a period or country house interior. Key Features * Late Victorian period, circa 1890–1900 * Set of six oak dining chairs * Shaped top rails with decorative detail * Studded leather backs and seats * Turned front legs with ceramic castors * Solid construction * Seats would benefit from reupholstery but are in good usable condition Dimensions Width: 48 cm Depth: 46 cm Height: 94 cm Seat Height: 46 cm
