Description

An assured Victorian mahogany pedestal desk with a large inset leather writing surface above a long central frieze drawer, flanked by two pedestals of graduated drawers with original brass handles, all raised on plinth bases with castors. Made for professional office use, combining a generous working space with practical storage, its modest footprint and fully finished back make it suitable for placement either centrally or against a wall within a study or library. Very good antique condition with some attractive surface wear consistent with age. The leather is a high-quality later replacement, the handles are original. Structurally all sound, clean and ready to place. English, circa 1890. H: 76.5 W: 122 D: 68 cm Kneehole - H: 60 W: 46 cm
