

SA1188225

Arita porcelain tankard, Japan,
c. 1700. Genroku Period.

Price

Sold

Item Reference: SA1188225

Date of manufacture: 17th Century

Dimensions

Height = 25 cm (9.8")

Width = 18 cm (7.1")

Description

A very large Arita porcelain tankard, Japan, c. 1700. Hand painted in underglaze blue, with a central panel of figures beneath a parasol, walking in a woodland landscape. Two panels to either side painted with ducks on a river, and birds amongst trees. The panels divided by dense, karakusa scroll, a motif repeated along the handle, which is pierced to accept the addition of a European metalwork cover. Height – 25 cm, 9 7/8". Width (from handle)- 18 cm, 7 1/8". Condition – Chip to handle – please see images for detail. Otherwise excellent condition. No restoration.

Seller Details

Philip Carrol Antiques

North Yorkshire United Kingdom

Tel: 07860 525 579

International Tel: +44 7860 525 579