18th Century Elm Cricket Table c. 1780

Price

SoldItem Reference: SA1188341*Date of manufacture: 18th Century

Description

A very beautiful and early cricket table in elm, the top with an excellent colour and patina and slightly undulating surface. With a very old patched repair to top and one leg with scarfed in replaced section – a professional repair. Original top to base, original pegged joints and made by hand in c. 1780. An utterly charming little table, sturdy and steady, very heavy for its size and completely usable with a two honest repairs which are reflected in my price. Dimensions are: 23.5 inches high, 20 inches wide and 19.5 inches deep.
