Description

This UNUSUAL and GENUINE VICTORIAN STAFFORDSHIRE DOG MONEY BOX dates from circa 1880. It has an attractive pinched pie-crust foot rim. A rare, genuine survivor amidst a world of reproductions. There is an old crack to the base which is solid and stable and a couple of small, fine hairlines coming from the aperture where over-enthusiastic children have either tried to put their money in or, more likely, get their money out. There are no chips or restoration. A good addition to a collection of Staffordshire Dogs. Height: 3.75 inches (9 cm) Express delivery within the UK is included. Please email for Overseas Shipping.
