Description

Size: 5ft 3in x 3ft 1in (160 x 94cm). Antique Tekke Turkmen chuval with nine 'Salor' turreted guls. Circa 1900. Chuval are storage bags used by the Turkmen nomads for the storage of personal items inside the yurt and also for the transport of goods on the backs of camels or horses. They were often woven in pairs. The chuval face is well drawn and has good clear colours, note the decorative elem panel at the lower end. Good condition with even wear, there are a few spots of slightly heavier wear that can be seen in the images, this is reflected in the price. The plain weave back has been removed at some time in the chuvals history. Stock Number: C-09.
