Description

This antique 18ct gold ring features a richly hued rhodolite garnet at its centre, flanked on each side by trefoil clusters of bright old-cut diamonds. The gemstones are set within a deeply carved openwork gallery that captures the essence of late Victorian design. The warm tone of the gold enhances the garnet's rose-pink hue, giving the ring a distinctive period charm and character. A beautiful example of craftsmanship from the late 19th century. Part of our antique garnet and diamond ring collection. SIZE UK L ½ / US 6 – Free sizing available
