Description

This vintage 18ct gold three-stone opal ring from the 1960s features a trio of luminous oval opals, each displaying flashes of pink, green and blue. Between them sit small, bright diamonds adding a gentle glimmer against the richly toned gold. The ornate claw settings and sculpted shoulders bring texture and depth, capturing a classic mid-century style. A beautifully balanced piece with a warm, glowing character. Part of our vintage opal ring collection.
