Description

This is an antique framed woodblock print. A Japanese, ukiyo-e figural scene by Utagawa Kunisada (1786 - 1865), dating to the early Victorian period, circa 1840. Exceptional Edo period woodblock print, in the striking ukiyo-e style. Displays a desirable aged patina and in good order throughout. Set within a tasteful later frame, with blue card border. Scene finished in a beautiful palette of green, red and blue. The scene shows a female figure playing a 13 string instrument, the Koto. Further figures and deer accentuate the rolling hills of the background. Typical iconography in the form of cherry blossom and character marks. Dressed to the rear with hanging wire for ease of mounting. This is a superb antique framed woodblock print, with wonderful Edo-period Japanese appeal. A striking piece to display or collect. Delivered ready to enjoy. Dimensions: Max Width: 40cm (15.75") Max Depth: 2.5cm (1") Max Height: 50.5cm (20") Picture Width: 22cm (8.75") Picture Height: 31.5cm (12.5")
