Description

A good quality set of sugar tongs and 6 matching silver Teaspoons contained in their original fitted case. They are a good quality set with a decorative scrolling design on the handles and fluted bowls in the 'Onslow' pattern. The total weight of silver is approximately 77g and every piece is individually hallmarked for London, 1892 and the makers Josiah Williams & Co. Every piece is in very good condition. There are some minor signs of age and use, a few faint surface marks and light dinks but nothing detrimental. They have been lightly cleaned and polished and are ready for use. The box is good quality with a marron silk lining and fitted velvet base. There are some minor marks and scuffs around the outer corners and edges but overall the box displays well. Approximate Measurements : Length of Spoon : 4 1/4" / 11cm Box : 8 1/4" / 21cm x 6" / 15cm The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask.
