Description

A charming Edwardian cheval mirror in excellent antique condition. The walnut frame is gracefully shaped, free from foxing, and supported by its original twin uprights, which stand on elegant carved legs that give the piece a pleasing sense of balance. The glass tilts smoothly within the frame, allowing it to be angled as needed. Warm timber tones and a well-preserved finish showcase the period craftsmanship, while the overall silhouette reflects the refined simplicity so characteristic of Edwardian design. A practical yet decorative piece, ideal for a bedroom or dressing room. Internal reference : SAI4041
